Truro Jan 24/63

The following resolution offered to in the assembly:

That the people are disengaged & disheartened at the continued reverses of our armies, but for which the generals in the field are not responsible & that we look forward to the restoration of Gen. W<sup>l</sup> Wallace as commander in chief as the only measure of saving our country from utter ruin, & that we look to him as the only measure man to lead the army of the Colonies to victory, Ref<sup>d</sup> to the com<sup>ee</sup> on Foreign Relations.
